IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the following procedures shall be observed in the disposition of violations of any of the offenses listed above:

1. Anyone charged with violation of offense listed above and not required to personally appear in court may, within 10 days after being so charged, dispose of the matter by sending the appropriate payment to the Central Violations Bureau, Denver, Colorado.

2. If the fine or penalty is not paid by such person within 10 days, the matter shall be set down for hearing before a United States Magistrate for the Northern District of Iowa.

3. If a person charged with an offense under this order fails to post and forfeit collateral, any punishment, including fine, imprisonment, or probation, may be imposed within the limits established by laws upon conviction by plea or after trial.

4. Nothing contained in this order shall prohibit a law enforcement officer from arresting a person for the commission of any offense, including those for which collateral may be posted before a United States Magistrate, or upon arrest, taking him immediately before a United States Magistrate. Existence of this Order does not create any rights on the part of an alleged violator and does not preclude the United States from taking any other action authorized by law.

5. (a) A mandatory court appearance by a person charged with a violation described above may be required when, in the sound judgement of the enforcement officer, the cash payment provided for the violation is inappropriate and will not create a just result considering the serious or aggravating nature of the circumstances surrounding the alleged violation.

(b) In those instances where a mandatory court appearance is felt justified, the enforcement officer shall mark the appropriate box on the violation notice form, and shall inform the accused that he will be notified within a reasonable time prior to this appearance as to the date, place, and time thereof. No monetary amount is to be indicated in the space provided for the amount of the fine, and the distribution of the four sheets of the violation notice after it is prepared by the officer shall be the same as when no mandatory appearance is required.

(c) It shall be the responsibility of the enforcement officer issuing any violation notice requiring a mandatory court appearance to prepare and submit to the United States Attorney's Office a detailed written report of the specific facts and circumstances giving rise to the violation charged and stating when a mandatory appearance by the accused is warranted. The report shall be prepared and submitted within 48 hours of the alleged violation.

6. The United States Magistrate for the Northern District of Iowa, located at Cedar Rapids and Sioux City are hereby specifically authorized to try persons accused of the offenses listed above, in accordance with the Rules of Procedure for United States Magistrates adopted by the Supreme Court of the United States.

7. This Order shall supersede all previous orders relating to forfeiture of collateral in this district.

Dated this 30th day of Aug., 1993.
